Note: Criminal Arrests are the number of people arrested, not the number of charges, counts or cases cleared. These include arrests made at the time of the incident as well as those filed after an extended investigation.

Department Notes:

- A 29 year old male was arrested for criminal attempt theft by unlawful taking or disposition, possession instruments of crime, and criminal mischief. The male unsuccessfully attempted to remove money from a coin change machine inside a township business. A 38 year old male was also arrested as a result of this incident for criminal conspiracy theft by unlawful taking or disposition and criminal mischief. Investigation revealed that the male was the driver during the commission of this attempted crime.
- A 20 year old male was arrested for trespass. The complainant returned home to find a male inside her residence. The male had entered the residence without the occupant's knowledge or permission.
- A 41 year old female was arrested for possession of a controlled substance and possession of drug paraphernalia. Officers were contacted by Probation who conducted a home check and found the illegal items. The female was taken into custody for violating her probation.
- 18 arrests were made for retail theft and 1 arrest was made for driving under the influence.
- Officers successfully served 3 warrants of the 6 warrants that they attempted to serve.
- Officers conducted 14 vacation home checks.

Use of Force: PTPD officers did use force during one incident in the month of December. Officers were attempting to place a male under arrest by handcuffing him for a DUI offense. As the officers attempted to apply the handcuffs, the male began to resist by spinning away from the officers and pulling his arms away. Officers took the male to the ground, rolled him onto his stomach, and grabbed his arms instructing him to stop resisting and put his hands behind his back. The male was handcuffed without any further force used. No injuries were reported by the male, or the officers involved.

Community Relations:

- Ofc. McCaslin provided traffic control along Fox Hollow/Fox Hill roads for the Nittany Valley half-marathon.
- Ofc. Vardzel conducted a ride along for a township resident
- Ofc. McCaslin conducted a ride along for a township resident
- Ofc. Tuskovich spoke to the Academic Literacy classes at Park Forest Middle School about unsolved crimes and law enforcement in Centre County
- Ofc. Tuskovich, Ofc. Shaffer, Ofc. Carter, Ofc. Vardzel, and Ofc. Sallade assisted with a "Hero's and Helper's" event held at Target. PTPD teamed up with the Centre County Youth Services Bureau and Target to shop with kids who are in the YSB shelter and independent living programs.
- Ofc. Tuskovich, Ofc. Sallade, Ofc. Shaffer and Chief Jolley participated in the annual Shop with a Cop gift pickup.

SUBJ: Performance Report

On 12/8/22, Ofc Carter and Ofc Vardzel responded to the College Buffet restaurant for a report of an unresponsive male. Upon arrival, the officers observed that the patient was unconscious and had agonal breathing. They determined that the patient was in the advanced stages of an opioid overdose. The officers attached an AED to the patient and administered naloxone. They then conducted rescue breathing and administered two more doses of naloxone. The patient became responsive after the third dose. At this point EMS arrived and the officers transferred care to them. The male was conscious and talking when he was transported to the hospital for evaluation.

It was due to the quick actions of Ofc Vardzel and Ofc Carter that a patient suffering from a potentially fatal drug overdose was revived and transported for more advanced care. Their actions reflect the highest credit on themselves and the Patton Township Police Department.

A copy of this report has been made part of the officer's permanent file.

Sergeant

I don't think this paper likes the "gel" pen!

Dear Officer Salgado,

Sending you Holiday Greetings
and wishing you a joyous New Year.

Thank you very much for all
your help with our stolen check.
We appreciate your time & effort to retrieve our money.

Don & Janice Marshall

Dear Ones,

From mid-September through mid-November of this year, I spent every Monday evening with local police-people at the Centre County Citizens' Police Academy, trying to understand, to feel, what their life is like, what motivates them, why they would choose to do something that you couldn't pay me enough to do.

The experience was a blessing --- eye-opening, heart-opening, thought-provoking. Breaking down my boxes of pre-conceived, simplified notions. Funny, sad and painful at times, forcing me to look at my ideas of how things "should be" vs. the reality of holed-up gun-men in Philipsburg, saving Nicole Albrino's life at the Ramada Inn and pulling an elderly woman from a burning house. Opinions and things they cannot say in public, much as it was when I was a corporate manager and had to keep quiet and take lumps in the court of public opinion. And the highest job rate of death by suicide in the nation. Perhaps, in the end, it boils down to concerns I have about all of our biases, for all of our mental health, and for our spiritual grounding.

Life is neither simple nor easy, though our logical minds try to make it so. It's complex and paradoxical. I deeply believe that we all want to be loved and respected, that none of us is the worst thing we've ever said or done, that we are all doing the best we can with what we have. Yet what we do has impact, regardless of our intent. These truths are evident in what's going on in myself and in the world, and were evident throughout the police academy.

There are pages more things I could say and so many questions I still have. And the poem below is my best shot at the essence of it all.

Logs and Specks: Reflections on Citizens' Police Academy

It's over.
Eight weeks putting myself in someone else's shoes,
the shoes of those who feel a calling
to risk their lives while the rest of us flee to safety,
who rescue dogs and go towards gun-men
yet are oft' maligned these days,
damned-if-you-do and damned-if-you-don't,
usually but
not always.

"Tell your friends that we are people, too!"
they said.
Painful, poignant, sad that this is all they want,
so obvious a truth when we're together.
Yet they can be objects of our negative bias,
which we denounce in them
when the tides
are turned.

I feel grateful to and pained for them,
grief for innocence and trust they've lost
in dealing with the worst of what we do to each other
as we act out our greed or pain or fear, our anger
or have accidents.
Would you
choose that?

Things are complicated, life complex,
not simple as our lazy minds would have them be.
None of us has perfect foresight,
hindsight alone is 20-20.
To be judged for what you did
preparing for a violent Proud Boys
that could have happened
but did not,
is to be caught
between a rock
and a
hard place.

Not everyone should be police,
that's for sure.
Yet imagine the life we'd have
without the best of them
because the worst can be in each of us
as
 our shadow.

"Us-them-us-them-us-them-US!"
The tragic refrain of people bereft of spiritual vision,
who've lost our hearts
and
 our honest self-reflection.

When the log is burnt within my eye and turned to ash
 I once blind can truly see
 my neighbor's eye contains no speck
for the Light that shines from within the Void of the Cross is

Love
without
condition

Compassion without end.

In Peace, with Love and Namaste /\
